Notifications and Orders on Judicial and Magisterial matters; reproduction of High Court notifications and Statutory notifications of the Election Commission, India, and other Election notifications

NOTIFICATIONS

Delhi, the 6th January, 1962

No. F.2(19)/59-Home(i).—Whereas the District Magistrate, Delhi had issued an order on the 7th January, 1960 that no person shall in any public place within the limits of the areas specified in the Schedule to the said order, hold any public meeting procession or demonstrations without the written permission of the District Magistrate, the resident Magistrate, New Delhi or the Ilqa Magistrate, as the case may be, and whereas the Chief Commissioner, Delhi by his order No. F.2(19)/59-Home dated the 18th February, 1960 had directed that the said order of the District Magistrate shall remain in force for a period of one year, instead of two months from the 7th January, 1960 and whereas the operation of the said order was further extended by the Chief Commissioner for one year from the 7th January, 1961 vide his order No. F. 2(19)/59-Home dated the 6th January, 1961.

And whereas it has been made to appear to the Chief Commissioner that such processions, meetings or demonstrations are still likely to result in riot or affray.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (6) of section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Chief Commissioner hereby directs that the order of the District Magistrate as aforesaid shall remain in force for a further period of one year from the 7th January, 1962.

By Order,

K. M. L. GUPTA,
Under Secretary (Home),
Delhi Administration, Delhi.

Delhi, the 4th January, 1962

No. F.2(94)/61-Home.—Whereas the portion of Rafi Marg between Yojna Bhawan and Reserve Bank (which connects Parliament Street with main Road Rafi Marg) is narrow and has such a rush of traffic on it that two way traffic on it is likely to cause serious accidents involving danger to the life of persons using this portion.
